VOL. XII. NO. 64. CHICAGO, FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1906. PRICE 5 CENTS

SUPPORT FOR LOTUS EATER.

MORRIS CANDIDATE FOR CRESCENT CITY DERBY IS BEING BACKED.

Rickey Will Be a Starter in City Park Derby—No Chance for Fast Tracks—New Orleans Gossip.

New Orleans, La., March 15.—In the ante-post betting on the Crescent City Derby Lotus Eater developed considerable support today and the Morris candidate is now a close second choice to Lady Navarre at 3 to 1. The largest single bet was $300 at 4 to 1, but there was much small money taken at the same figure preceding the cut. Lotus Eater was sent a mile today in 1:51. He ran in the middle of the track where the going was very heavy. He worked sluggishly, as usual. Ben Hodder was given an easy mile in 1:51½, well to the outside where the footing was better.

The prices prevailing tonight are: Ben Hodder, 4 to 1; Guiding Star, 6 to 1; James Reddick, 6 to 1; Lotus Eater, 3 to 1; Hallowmas, 20 to 1; Security, 20 to 1; Holloway, 100 to 1; Macy Jr., 30 to 1; Lady Navarre, 11 to 5; Disobedient, 8 to 1.

The weather today was not of the sort to encourage hopes for a fast track for Saturday, but Superintendent Myers promises to have it in better shape than any one now anticipates.

St. Valentine's race today was quite an improvement over some of his recent efforts. The last time Cigarlighter met him in heavy going he easily disposed of him, but St. Valentine ran Cigarlighter dizzy today. He was about the best backed horse which has won here this winter and every book in the ring stood a hard wallop when he finished in front.

Polly Prim would undoubtedly have won the fifth race had not Smith on Third Alarm carried her to the inside rail and then forced her to pull up. She was winning when the incident occurred and it looked as though Smith made little effort to keep his mount off.

Rickey, sent here by Sim Diemel from New York to run in the City Park Derby Saturday, showed his heels to a fair field of three-year-olds in the third race today. He was ridden by Nicol, conceded weight to everything in the race and won all the way, beating Daring out a length at the finish. Two favorites managed to win. T. P. Hayes furnished to of the winners in Principia and Incubator. D. Austin and Nicol each rode two winners.

"Doc." Welgemuth, superintendent of the City Park plant, promises to have the track in good shape by Saturday, provided no more rain falls. If there is good footing the Derby starters will number at least eight.

Jack Phillips will ship Jack Dolan east early next week. He will go in James H. McCormick's care and will rest up at Sheepshead Bay until the opening of the Aqueduct meeting. Jack Dolan's first race in the east will be in the Carter Handicap. At the conclusion of the Aqueduct meeting he will be shipped to Toronto.

Fred Cook's English Lad, together with a dozen brood mares has been shipped to his farm near St. Louis. In the lot was Beautiful Bess which gave promise early last spring of developing into a sensational filly. She won her first out and then trained off.

George Holle's Jean Bereand colt, Karama, which was taken sick with fever about ten days ago died this morning at City Park. Karama was rated by horsemen as the fastest two-year-old in training here this winter. In one of his trials he went a half mile around the turn in 47⅖. Several flattering offers for Karama were refused by his owner.

Quinn Brady, recently purchased by J. P. Mayberry, is on the ailing list. The colt pulled up sore after his last workout and will have to be let up on for a few weeks.

James Milton, one of starter Cassidy's assistants, left tonight for Washington. He will erect a starting gate at Bennings and will be prepared to school horses until the meeting opens there. Cassidy also has men schooling horses at Belmont Park, Jamaica, Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay.

Francis Trevelyan has been asked by the Ontario Jockey Club to officiate at Toronto as one of the stewards and he will likely accept. Mr. Trevelyan will go from here to Lexington, then to Louisville where he will remain until Toronto opens. He will sail for England on June 9 and will remain abroad until late next fall.

FAVORITES WIN ALL RACES AT OAKLAWN.

Radtke Rides Three, Cherry Two and Sewell One—Much is Expected of Chancellor.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 15.—Favorites won all the races at Oaklawn today and the bookmakers returned from the course with doleful faces. Ed. Trotter furnished a pair of winners in Excitement and Tristan Shandy that played havoc with the bank rolls of the layers. Both were ridden by Cherry, who is beginning to show improving form as a rider. Radtke again carried off the riding honors by piloting to victory Merlingo, Maxim Gorky and Cottage Maid. Sewell landed the other winner. He left tonight for New Orleans to pilot Lady Navarre in the Crescent City Derby Saturday. He will resume riding at Oaklawn Monday.

Small fields were the rule today, but the contests were keen and, considering the bad weather, a fair crowd was on hand.

Arthur Worley announced today that he will dispose of all his horses here. He is to train this year the horses comprising the string of Dr. J. Grant Lyman.

Joe Yeager stood to win $25,000 had Margaret Morris defeated Maxim Gorky. Chinn & Forsythe started Chancellor in this race but the colt was unfit, ran green and was never in the hunt. He will improve on this running and beat the winner of today's race with ease when he learns what is wanted of him. It is reported that an offer of $10,000 was refused for this youngster.

OUTSIDERS HELP OAKLAND BOOKMAKERS.

San Francisco, Cal., March 15.—The bookmakers are, figuratively speaking, making hay while the sun shines. The present bountiful harvest of successful outsiders has enabled them to gather in much if not all of their losses. Only two favorites, both lukewarm, rewarded their backers this afternoon.

Barney Schreiber left tonight for Los Angeles to close up his establishment at Ascot Park.

"Kid" Weller also departed for the east via Los Angeles and New Orleans. His final destination being Cincinnati.

PLANS ARE NOT ALTERED.

New York, March 15.—Officers of the New England Breeders' Club announced today that plans for racing at Rockingham Park, their new track near Salem, would not be altered by the recent decision of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire.

TWO STAKES FOR VANDERBILT.

New York, March 15.—A cablegram from Paris this afternoon says: At the St. Cloud races today W. K. Vanderbilt's Prestige, with Ranch up, won the Prix de St. Cloud and his Malta captured the Prix Villamblain. Ranch was also the rider of Malta.

SCHORR WILL RACE IN THE EAST.

Memphis, Tenn., March 15.—Far West and Moharib will race in the colors of John W. Schorr on eastern tracks this year. They will be taken to Bennings by John Lowe next Sunday. G. B. Watkins has arrived at Montgomery Park from New Orleans.

McLAUGHLIN SHIPS TO BENNINGS.

New York, March 15.—The horses that James McLaughlin intends to race at Bennings were shipped from Gravesend today. In the car were Race King, The Poet, High Brush, Jack McKeon, Palora and several two-year-olds, among them Solly and Sun Up.

SCHREIBER SENDS HORSES TO MEMPHIS.

Memphis, Tenn., March 15.—Sixteen two-year-olds from Barney Schreiber's Farm in Missouri arrived at Montgomery Park today. They will be joined by a contingent of the stable now in California in a few days. They will be ready to race at the spring meeting, which will open April 16.

NO BIDS FOR WASHINGTON PARK TRACK.

No bids for the purchase of Washington Park race track were made yesterday. According to the advertisement, the eighty acres and improvements or any part of the improvements, were for sale with the stipulation that bids be made to the First Trust and Savings Bank by noon of March 15. It is now understood that the plant will be dismantled and the property cut up into building lots.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Roseben is doing good work at Gravesend these days.

Beginning Monday next racing at Crescent Park will begin at 2:30 each afternoon.

The public would like it better if the bookmakers at Oaklawn would lay more liberal place and show odds.

Nealon will not be a starter in the four mile race at Oakland tomorrow. He was cut down in his last race.

A tax of $50 per head is now assessed against all horses that are brought into Germany from any other country.

The New York Sun says: "Joe Yeager will have no horses this year, but will devote his time exclusively to speculation."

In one of the London clubs recently a wager of $50,000 to $225 was laid against the double event of Holme Lacy for the Lincoln Handicap and Gladiator for the Liverpool Grand National.

It has been decided by the stewards of the English National Hunt that B. F. Clyde's Dathi, disqualified several weeks ago after coming in first in a race in England, was properly disqualified and they have dismissed the appeal lodged with them.

In London racing circles it is announced that Lord Gerard, who won $15,000 on the match at Sandown Park which resulted in one of the riders being warned off, has presented the money to the Bentinck memorial fund, from which indigent jockeys and their relatives are given aid.

"Not having seen or heard of Prophet III for some little time, his Grand National bubble has exploded," says Warren Hill in London Sporting Life, "and it was plain from the first that he was not the sort for a Grand National." Prophet III is Foxhall Keene's candidate for the big steeplechase that is to be decided March 30.

Winner—B. c, by Jean Bereaud—Marshetta (trained by W. E. Phillips).

Went to post at 2:12. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Tom Dolan was ridden to save ground all the way, came through on the inside on the turn into the homestretch and, wearing the leaders down in the last eighth, drew away at the end. Vendido closed a gap and outlasted Beau Brummel under a drive. The latter broke with the leaders and showed early speed, but was used up in racing Tom Morgan into defeat. Sister Peggy was on the outside all the way and was carried wide on the turn for home.

Overweights—Belsay, 3 pounds.

Time, 26⅘, :53, 1:22⅘, 1:47¼, 2:15, 2:44¼.

Winner—Ch. c, by Handsel—Battle Belle (trained by E. Leigh).

Went to post at 2:41. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second easily. Bradley's Pet ran well in hand until after they had gone a mile, opened up a winning lead on the far turn while going the second time around and was under restraint all of the last furlong. Little Elkin trailed until in the last quarter, then closed up fast in the stretch run and easily disposed of the others. Gold Bell showed speed, but was used up in chasing the winner through the first mile. Dazzle showed scant speed and ran a bad race, which should be thrown out.

Time, :25, :50½, 1:17⅗.

Winner—B. g, by Greenan—Limes (trained by A. Simons).

Went to post at 3:07. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Rickey went to the front when the start came and raced Nutwood into defeat and then Daring, and drew away in the last furlong. Daring closed up fast while rounding the far turn, where he slipped through on the inside and finished gamely. Nutwood swerved to the inside in the last sixteenth. Tinker was shut off soon after the start, ran a very bad race and can do much better.

Scratched—(61028) Minnie Adams, 126; 60840 Principia, 97; 60684³ Bric-a-Brac, 100.

Time, 25⅘, 50⅗, 1:17, 1:46⅖.

Winner—B. c, by Orsini—Elizabeth, by Thad Stevens (trained by R. Cassidy).

Went to post at 3:31. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ezra was saved until well around the far turn, where he moved up, wore Zinda down in the stretch run and was going away at the finish. Zinda found the track to her liking, rushed to the front and set the pace fast, but the effort told on her in the last quarter. Ann Hill began slowly and, working her way up on the inside, closed up fast in the stretch and outgamed Lady Charade in the final drive. The latter showed early speed, but tired badly. Tryon finished gamely.

Scratched—60931 Arthur Cummer, 110; 60804² Rian, 109; (60965) Mary Worth, 107.

Time, 25⅖, 50, 1:16⅖, 1:44⅖.

Winner—B. g, by Fitz James—Queen's Taste (trained by B. C. Evans).

Went to post at 3:57. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Bot Mot ran along with Garnish for the first half and then was taken back until rounding the turn into the homestretch, where he moved up with a rush, but finished in the deep going next to the inside rail and had to be hard ridden in the last sixteenth to stall off Kleinwood. Nicol avoided the early pace with Kleinwood and came to the middle of the track on the turn into the homestretch and his mount finished gamely and was wearing the winner down. Garnish showed the most early speed, but was eased up in the last furlong and is raced inconsistently.

Scratched—(60934) Lieutenant Rice, 105.

Winner—B. h, by Ingoldsby—My Chick (trained by T. P. Hayes).

Went to post at 4:22. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Incubator rated along in behind the leaders until rounding the far turn, where he moved up fast, caught Lineal tiring in the last sixteenth and just managed to poke his nose in front in the last stride. Lineal was much used in racing Prestige and The Only Way into defeat, but saved ground on the turn for home, swung out into the middle of the track in good going and barely failed to win. Fox Hunting began slowly and had to work his way up on the outside and came fast in the last quarter. Two Penny was knocked about and ran well. The Only Way showed speed, but quit badly.

Scratched—61031 Gamara, 110.

Overweights—Lineal, 3 pounds; Wellesley, 1; The Only Way, 2.

Winner—Ch. f, by Hastings—Priceless (trained by T. P. Hayes).

Went to post at 4:51. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Principia worked her way up on the inside and, saving ground on the turn into the homestretch, wore Dr. Mack down and outlasted Mary Morris when it came to the final drive. Mary Morris moved up fast on the turn into the homestretch and finished with a rush. Goldzone ran well and was on the outside of the others all the way. Anna Smith finished fast when too late. Dr. Mack showed speed, but tired. Oak Grove ran a bad race.

Overweights—Anna Smith, 1 pound; George E. Milner, 1.

A CHAT WITH "LUCKY" BALDWIN.

"Out East a tale is traveling its way which says that the old man of Santa Anita is in his dotage; that he is almost totally blind; that the race course will know him never again, and that the last of the great breeding establishments of California is to be broken up" says a writer in the San Francisco Examiner.

"I found 'Lucky' Baldwin attending to the onerous and numerous calls of his immense land holdings, his brain as clear for the accumulation of dollars as in the days when he was getting the nickname of 'Lucky.' His complexion is like a babe's and his eyes, which have troubled him for ten months, are almost normal. He was almost insulted when I asked him if he intended breaking up his stud. Now, where did you get that, boy? he querulously queried. What put such a notion into your head? Go down there to the barns and look at that bunch of yearlings and see if you'd quit breeding. You'll find some Cruzados sucklings there that would keep you in the business. No, not business—the fun of the thing. That's what I breed for. I want to have good race horses come off this ranch. I've had some good ones, too, haven't I? and the eyes took on a twinkle.

"Even now, at his age, he is striving to breed a great stallion to take the place of Grinstead, Rutherford and Emperor of Norfolk. He sent ten Emperor mares and bred them to Watercress with the idea that he might get a great sire. He bred La Goleta to The Bard in the east with the same idea. The American blood for me, he said. It has won me many and many a race and I don't believe in sending abroad and paying a high price for a sire when I can get such combinations as Watercress and Lexington right here at home. How can you beat that, son? It's the best.

"I asked him the name of the best horse he ever owned. 'Why, boy, if I told you you'd laugh. It was that filly Sinaloa', he said. 'Yes, that brown filly. Better than any of them she was. Better than Emperor of Norfolk? Yes. Better than Mollie McCarty? Yes. Better than Los Angeles? Yes. Because she could run faster and pack weight, too. She took up a big, heavy burden, I don't remember how much, but it was more than 120, and worked a mile and a quarter at Monmouth Park, I think it was, in 2:04. That was a second faster than the record. Some of the racing officials in the East knew of it and they offered to get up a special stake at a mile and a quarter the next spring for Sinaloa and Mr. Haggin's Salvator. I left her in the east that winter just for the stake and Albert Cooper let her die from pneumonia. She was the fastest and the gamest one of them all, son, and you needn't smile. There was only one of her.

"'You asked me about Mollie McCarty. She was a good mare, all right, and if the track had been right that day in Louisville when she ran the great match with Ten Broeck she would have beaten him sure. She didn't run in my name in that race, but I bought her from Mr. Winters before she left California to go east for the match. You know that was the biggest race we'd had since the old-time matches at four miles. Mollie was not herself that day, and the climate killed her chances. Bud Doble and his partner, Conley, arranged that match and I'll tell you now that the gate money was evenly cut into three parts, one-third going to each horse and one-third to the promoters. The race itself was for blood, however.

"'That gave Mollie such a black eye in the East that they called her the California plug. She was in a cup race at Chicago afterward and on her I won the biggest bet of my turf career. That's what I'm getting to. Nobody thought anything of her and the whole south was crazy over a mare called Janet, from Kentucky. She was the hottest kind of a favorite and the Southerners bet their suspenders on her. I had Clara D. in the same race and she could have won it, I believe, but I wanted Mollie to show herself. She just galloped over Janet, my son, and I took just $63,000 out of the auction pools. That was the heaviest bet I ever collected. There were others close to it, but that was the top one.

"'I remember one fine old gentleman who had a silk hat on snatching it off his head and smashing it on the picket fence when Mollie came galloping home. 'I ain't got money enough left for a ticket back to Kentucky,' he yelled, 'but I love a good race hoss wherever I see one, and that mare's it.' I said, 'My friend, I'll stake you to a ticket home for your sentiment. I own Mollie McCarty.' He wouldn't take the money, but he left his watch at the Grand Pacific that night. The Grand Pacific safe was full of split-seconds which the Kentuckians and Tennesseeans left there after Mollie had come on home. That was racing, son, horse racing.' "

Time, 12⅗, 24⅗, 37, 51.

Winner—Ch. c, by Dr. Hasbrouck—Cremorne (trained by R. E. Watkins).

Went to post at 2:02. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Baleshed followed Black Burn closely for a quarter, then took to the good going on the outside and went into the lead, but had to be driven to the limit at the end to stall off Black Burn. The latter, as usual, ran out at the head of the stretch, but was coming like a flash at the finish. Salvisa made up a lot of ground from a poor beginning. Sanscrit came fast in the stretch. Wabash Queen had no mishaps. Commodore Theim and Sister Hoffman were virtually left at the post.

Scratched—(61019)Helmuth, 107.

Overweights—Black Burn, 1 pound.

61084 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. (Track record 1:12⅕.) Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

Winner—Br. g, by Loyalist—Ada B. (trained by S. C. Hildreth).

Went to post at 2:31. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Van Ness set the pace throughout, but had to be driven to the limit at the finish to withstand the strong challenge of Lady Henrietta and just lasted long enough. Lady Henrietta ran in close and game pursuit all the way and was gaining slowly at the end. Arabo made a very game finish, but could not quite reach the leaders. Curd Gillock was outclassed.

Scratched—(58294)Sanetomo, 105; 60989^{2}Whippoorwill, 97; (60704)Escutcheon, 110; 60767 Maltster, 108.

Winner—B. m, by Longstreet—Miss Modish (trained by M. J. Reardon).

Went to post at 2:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Katie Powers was greatly favored by the sticky track, swung clear on the outside when entering the homestretch, pinching off Flavigny, and, finishing fast, won going away after having carried Canyon to the inside in the final sixteenth. Canyon ran in greatly improved form and might have won with clear sailing. Aurumaster finished fast. Paul Clifford tired after displaying the most early speed, Robbins having made too much use of him in the early stages. Flavigny ran well to the stretch.

Scratched—60924 Uncle Henry, 99; 60959 Light Note, 104; 60959 Jungle Imp, 101; (60769)Sea Voyage, 94.

Winner—B. h, by Himyar—Bracelet (trained by W. Shields).

Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. St. Valentine was rated along by Martin to the half-mile ground, then went after Cigarlighter and Captain Bob and, racing them into subjection, won under mild restraint. Cigarlighter seemed sore when going to the post, but ran a good race and stuck to his task gamely. Little Scout finished fast, but got third place by a fluke. Captain Bob ran well and had Aubuchon persevered with him the latter would have got third money. Footlights Favorite showed speed, but failed to stay.

Time, 24⅗, 50, 1:17.

Winner—B. g, by Sir Modred—Pas Seul (trained by W. S. Price).

Went to post at 4:01. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Deuxtemps had clear going all through the race, finished gamely and got the race in the final strides by sheer good luck in avoiding interference. Third Alarm ran well, but interfered with Polly Prim on the turn for home, forcing her rider to ease her up, but she overtook him again in the stretch run and he then carried her from the outside to the inside. Foul was claimed and allowed. Shipwreck was always outrun.

Scratched—(60799)First Premium, 114.

Went to post at 4:29. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Hortensia came around the leaders on the turn for home and, drawing away in the final furlong, won with something left. Water Pansy took the longest route, running on the outside all the way and finished gamely. Katherine L. ran well up all the way, but tired in the stretch. Lemon Girl tired in the last sixteenth and had no other mishaps. Firing Line showed early speed.

Winner—B. c, by Maxio—Blithesome (trained by A. C. Dean).

Went to post at 2:05. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Tanana made up ground rapidly from an indifferent start and came away fast right at the end after a sharp stretch struggle with Duke of Orleans. The latter loomed up like the winner when taking a brief lead midway of the stretch, but finally tired. Blanche C., from a flying start, forced a stiff pace, succumbing eventually in a game finish. Miss Turtle was shuffled quickly to the rear and closed a gap. Queen Aileene was evidently handicapped by the going. Gold Heather was knocked out of the race. Maia had small chance at the start, but showed great early speed.

Scratched—(60917)Elmdale, 112.

Corrected weights—Tanana, 107.

Overweights—Gold Heather, 1 pound; Scamper, 2; Nerska, 1.

Winner—B. g, by Dandie Dinmont—Queenfisher (trained by P. Sheridan).

Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Sir Dougal maintained a close pursuit of the pacemaker to the stretch, where he outstayed him in a long closing drive in the worst going. Dick Wilson made the running well in hand to the final sixteenth, where he suddenly tired. Jake Moose was always well up and going faster than the leaders at the end. Easy Street displayed good early speed and tired. Fury, away badly, seemed anchored in the going, but made up some ground. Royal Red dropped to the rear early and ran a bad race. Hobson's Choice was evidently handicapped by the mud.

Corrected weights—Dick Wilson, 110.

Winner—B. g, by Russell—Fancy Remnant (trained by E. L. Fitzgerald).

Went to post at 2:57. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lansdown, under a pull, ran lapped on the pacemaker to the far turn, where he gradually forged to the front and, being carefully nursed along, managed to last it out with something to spare. Blackthorn ran to his best recent form, but was outclassed by the winner. Conger, after trailing for half the journey, finished with a rush. Melar ran forwardly for six furlongs and tired. Dotterel showed early speed, but unexpectedly quit. Follow Me was seriously handicapped in the going.

Winner—Ch. g, by Inverness—Sauteuse (trained by L. D. Hall).

Went to post at 3:21. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. The Reprobate, from a flying start and lightly weighted and served by the going, won all the way never seriously menaced. Judge, away badly and in close quarters in the early running, finished fast in the worst going under inadequate handling. Peggy O'Neal displayed superior speed and stamina. Golden Buck, away poorly in the worst going, loomed up menacingly midway of the stretch and unexpectedly tired. Modicum was out of his distance, but went well.

Winner—Ch. f, by Riley—Lula W. (trained by E. Belmont).

Went to post at 3:47. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Leila Hill, away badly, trailed far in the rear in the early running, but closed a tremendous gap on the extreme outside in the last six furlongs and won running off. Prestano ran forwardly and held on unexpectedly well. Mogregor was a prominent contender for a mile, but tired right at the end. Ralph Young also failed to stay after a good effort for seven furlongs. May Holladay retired at the end of seven furlongs of pacemaking. Canejo was in the worst going and inadequately handled all the way. Expedient ran a bad race.

Winner—Br. h, by Sain—Ada Reese (trained by H. E. Rowell).

Went to post at 4:11. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Corrigan was bumped at the start, but ran in forward pursuit on the inside in the worst going and came through and made good decisively in the stretch. Anvil, in rare form, made the running by a wide gap for over seven furlongs before he was headed and was an easing up second. Theo Case ran in close pursuit from the start and, after looming up like the winner on the last turn, tired badly in the closing drive. Nine Spot was outpaced in the early running, but finished well. Dixie Lad was hopelessly outpaced from the start and ran an extremely bad race.

Corrected weights—Anvil, 102.

Overweights—Nine Spot, 2 pounds.

Went to post at 2:29. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Merlingo got away well, but was reserved for the first quarter, seemed inclined to loaf and had to be hard ridden in the middle quarter, but came on fast in the stretch and won going away. Kizil showed much speed, but tired unexpectedly under weak handling. Townes ran a fairly good race, closing a big gap in the last furlong. Kuropatkin tired badly from chasing Kizil. Winner—B. c, by Maxio—Lady Cardigan (trained by G. H. Keene).

Went to post at 2:57. At post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Maxim Gorky had to be hard ridden for the entire trip, closed up ground steadily from a slow beginning and got up in the final stride. Margaret Morris, away fully in motion, ran into a long lead, but tired unexpectedly in the last sixteenth after appearing a certain winner. Duchess of Dantzic ran a good race and is showing steady improvement. Willcox showed speed, but tired badly. Chancellor, a reported good one, ran green and can probably beat this kind when accustomed to racing.

Winner—B. c, by Scorpion—Handmaid II. (trained by E. Trotter).

Went to post at 3:27. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Excitement, favored by his light impost and the going, raced H. L. Frank into subjection in the first half and easily held the others safe in the final drive. Cutter trailed in the early running and lost ground by going wide into the stretch, but finished fast and outgamed Aaron J. in the last sixteenth. The latter could not concede the weight asked and probably disliked the slippery going. H. L. Frank tired badly in the last furlong.

Winner—Ch. m, by Halma—Palace (trained by E. Peters).

Went to post at 3:59. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Cottage Maid, away fully in motion and clear of interference, won all the way with much in reserve. Sambo ran kindly today, made up a lot of ground from a slow beginning and finished going fast. Fra Fillipo closed up ground steadily from a poor beginning and outgamed Mirthless. The latter ran a bad race, although hard ridden, and can do much better. Animosity quit. Brimfull can also do better.

Scratched—61004 Dresden, 98; 61067 Falkland, 105; 60782 Lady Lusk, 106; 60845 Binderton, 98.

Overweights—Animosity, 2 pounds; Aten, 1.

Winner—B. f, by Inspector B.—Al Lone (trained by W. Cole).

Went to post at 4:27. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Tres Joli ran like a good colt, forced a fast pace from the start and always held Jacomo safe. The latter, away running, established a slight lead in the first furlong, but was headed before reaching the stretch turn, then hung on gamely under punishment. Biawawi had no mishaps and was best of the others. San Ardo ran a poor race.

Scratched—61036^2Alma's Pet, 106.

Winner—Br. g, by Tristan—Long Maid (trained by E. Trotter).

Went to post at 4:57. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Tristan Shandy was well ridden, followed the leaders closely for the first three-quarters, saved ground into the stretch and just lasted long enough. George Vivian began with his usual slowness and finished with a belated rush. Payne ran in surprisingly improved form, raced Henry O. into subjection and, though tiring in the last furlong, hung on well. Henry O. ran a dull race and was weakly ridden. Legatee can do much better and ran a poor race.

Corrected weights—Anadarco, 97.

Overweights—Henry O., 3 pounds; Economist, 2.
